

Kearah-Armonie Jeudy

<http://kearmonie.com/>
info@kearmonie.com

An Afro-Caribbean Multidisciplinary artist specializing in Filmmaking, Poetry/Spoken Word, and Education, Kearah-Armonie is intentional in uplifting and representing marginalized communities.

EXPERIENCE

Reel Works, Brooklyn — Post-Production Instructor

APRIL 2023 - PRESENT

- Partnered with Director of Education to guide a dozen students through the post-production process of their first narrative film
- Develops original lesson plans for weekly in-person workshops, highlighting post-production techniques and supporting students' strengths and interests

Paramount, NYC — BET Digital Assistant Editor

MARCH 2021 - JULY 2022

- Editing and executing a number of quick turnaround short form digital content for YouTube, Instagram, and BET.com ie: celebrity interviews, music video playlists, etc.
- Oversaw the implementation of latest delivery workflows to improve the company's archival organization

Urban Word NYC, NYC — Teaching artist

SEPTEMBER 2015 - PRESENT

- Encourages youth literacy and voice through poetry writing and spoken word workshops at various elementary, middle, and high schools across NYC, having served hundreds of students

The Shed, NYC — “DisObey” initiative Teaching Artist

MARCH 2018 - DECEMBER 2019

- Provides space for students ages 16-19, at several highschools, to explore protest and creative action through writing, storytelling, and visual art workshops creating original work that examines identity, personal narrative, historical acts of protest, and self-determination.

Caribbean Cultural Center African Diaspora Institute, NYC — Teaching Artist/Program Coordinator

FEBRUARY 2018 - DECEMBER 2018

- Explores storytelling and oral tradition with high school students, specializing in both spoken word and documentary filmmaking.
- Coordinator and Facilitator for La Casita in Harlem, writing program for NYC teens in partnership with Lincoln Center

SKILLS

- Avid Media Composer
- Adobe Premiere Pro
- Adobe Photoshop
- Adobe After Effects
- DaVinci Resolve

- Directing
- Cinematography
- Producing
- Screenwriting

- Poetry Writing
- Teaching/Workshop Facilitation
- Spoken Word
- Photography

AWARDS/RECOGNITIONS

Reel Sisters of The Diaspora
2023 Microbudget Film
Contest- Finalist/Honorable Mention

Black Girls Film Camp - 2022
& 2023 Film Editor

The Laundromat Project
Create Change 2023 Fellow

Caribbean Cultural Center
African Diaspora Institute
2021 Innovative Cultural
Advocacy Fellow

The Neighborhood Project
2021 Artist in Residence

EDUCATION

Feirstein Graduate School of Cinema, NYC — MFA

CINEMA ARTS/POST PRODUCTION

AUGUST 2018 - MAY 2021

CUNY Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, NY — BA

DOCUMENTARY FILM PRODUCTION

AUGUST 2013 - MAY 2016

PROJECTS

It's Time We Get Back Home — Community Organization

FOUNDER/ORGANIZER

JANUARY 2022 - PRESENT

Community safe haven for fellowship, education, and love offering health/wellness, creative, and skill building centered workshops and gatherings in Crown Heights, Brooklyn.

28 Shades of Black Magic — Photo Project

CREATOR/CURATOR

FEBRUARY 2018 - PRESENT

Annual photo series highlighting Young, Black artists, activists, and entrepreneurs who are truly making history everyday.

Now, In Color! — Music Video/Docuseries

PRODUCER/DIRECTOR

MAY 2022

Now, in Color! is a performance piece and interview series celebrating queer love in 2022, centering all the iterations we don't usually see.

Home, Where Is — Multimedia Project/Short Film

WRITER/CREATOR

MARCH 2021

"Home where is" is a multimedia arts exhibition which challenges the cliché's of "home". This meditation on Kearah-Armonie's relationship with Brooklyn is a culmination of spoken word poetry, photography, and visual art all representing "home" from the perspective of an Afro-Caribbean first-generation-American Black girl from Brooklyn, New York. Created as part of The Neighborhood Project, an Artist Residency Program presented by 651 Arts.

AWARDS/RECOGNITIONS

cont.

Micro Mania Film festival
2022 Official Selection -
"SOME SPACE"

Blank Street Coffee/NYFW
Photographer - 2021 Street
Style Campaign

New Women Space's
Queering Films Film Festival
2012 Official Selection -
"SOME SPACE"

Featured in Bleu Magazine's "The Humans" segment 2018

Featured in Let's Panic Magazine
issue 04

Women of African Descent Film
Festival(WoADFF) 2019 Official
Selection - "NEWBIE"

CUNY Film Festival 2019 Official
Selection - "NEWBIE"

CUNY Film Festival 2019 Official
Selection - "Shoulders"

Poetry featured in Great Weather
for Media's anthology "The Other Side of Violet"

Contributing Writer for
Dominique Morriveau's "50in50:
Writing Ourselves into Existence"
2018